

Social Studies websites for regions:

<http://mapmaker.nationalgeographic.org/>

<http://www.harcourtschool.com/ss1/Grade4/grade4.html> some links in this sight are broken but many live. Virtual field trips, primary sources, learning activities

<http://www.learner.org/interactives/historymap/fifty.html> interactive map of the US regions

<http://regions.mrdonn.org/usa.html> home to teacher and student links

http://www.ducksters.com/geography/us_states/us_geographical_regions.php also home to many links for each state

<http://mrusbaum.com/united-states/regions/> also home to many live links for states plus links for landmarks, landforms, and other topics

<http://www.postcardsfrom.com/t1/arcin.html> a tour through the USA through looking at postcards (primary sources)

http://www.scholastic.com/teachers/top_teaching/2010/03/region-tour

<http://sgstingrays.weebly.com/us-regions-tour.html> great resource with videos, songs made for a school

<https://www.symbaloo.com/home/mix/regionstour> same as above but through webmix site

